

BORN TO COMPETE

the movie

“Born to Compete” The Story About a Unique Martial Arts Family

This independent film produced by Danny Zaino and directed by Richard Hackworth of Action Star Media is a documentary/reality film about a martial arts family who face head-on all the trials and tribulations of competing and performing in the martial arts industry today. This film will be packed with hard hitting martial arts action and is to be released in January 2010.

Movie Begins Production in Palm Beach County

Action Star Media Casting Agent and Director Richard Hackworth announced that the final casting and kickoff production has begun in Palm Beach County Florida featuring the Zaino family, Danny, Theresa, Tony, Joey, and Dominique who are members of “National Team Pepsi” along with additional team members and special guest martial artists.

Producer Danny Zaino recently scheduled the first film shoot and completed the principal photography for the Movie poster prints and DVD jacket. The first design concept has been produced and will appear in Action Martial Arts Magazine and World Martial Arts Magazine in the coming months.

The ingénue cast member is young Dominique Zaino who is sure to be a scene stealer throughout the film. Dominique is the youngest cast member (age 14), with a feature role in this production. The multi-talented Dominique Zaino will also be working with the movie Lyricist and will sing the sound-track title song. The movie sound-track will be produced by Interlude Records.

Some out-take shots will be posted on Youtube.com as trailers until the post production trailer is completed. For information on participating in this film contact Director Richard Hackworth at richard@richardhackworth.com or Danny & Theresa Zaino at dzkarate@comcast.net.