

Hello to all fellow martial artists,

Looking back on our martial arts careers the most important thing to most of us in the beginning was to teach a great class. As we progressed in our field some of us began to have other interests in the martial arts such as running a competition team, choreographing a martial arts demonstration, or perhaps perusing a bit part in a movie.

Now you can have the opportunity to further your martial arts career by participating in this unique project which we believe to be a great business opportunity for your school.

Head Coach of "National Team Pepsi", Promoter of the "Battle of Florida", and President of the "Florida Palm Coast Karate Events" / National Promoters League" Danny Zaino has dedicated 35 years of his life to the martial arts and will be producing two martial arts documentary / Reality films with director Richard Hackworth of Action Star Media, Inc. The first film titled "Born to Compete" is about a unique martial arts family who face head-on all the trials and tribulations of competing and performing in the martial arts industry. The second film "The Warrior's Quest" will feature 12 martial arts grandmasters. These films will be used for future broadcast on T.V.

Contact us today to schedule a seminar at your school. We will be filming all seminars and footage filmed at your school will be considered to be included as a part in these film documentaries.

We are offering seminars on the following subjects:

- * Weaponry - Tonfa / Bo / Knunchucks / Jo / Yawara Sticks
- * Street combat - Sweeps / Take downs
- * Traditional Kata
- * 2 man & group forms
- * Martial Arts Sparring
- * How to organize and choreograph a demo team
- * Fight Scenes
- * Police tactics

Don't miss this opportunity!!!
